

Attached again is the Student Information Consent and Release Form that, beginning last fall, replaced the Graduate Student Information on the Web Release Form (“FERPA Release Form”) that the Office of Information Technology had been collecting .

The purpose of this form is to insure that the release of student information on CUNY websites and in CUNY publications, including Graduate Center electronic and print media, meets with FERPA (the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act) and other pertinent regulations.

This revised form should be disseminated to all new students and to continuing students as appropriate--as it covers a more comprehensive range of items than the previous form. Program offices should retain a copy of the completed form and forward the originals to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

Please note that the forms provide for a Yes/No check off, so all students should be encouraged to complete them.
