

Virtual Open House Industrial and Organizational Psychology Ph.D. Program Graduate Center & Baruch College City University of New York

The industrial and organizational psychology program of the Graduate Center and Baruch College will hold virtual open houses for fall 2021 admissions on:

Tuesday - September 22nd from 5:00pm-6:00pm EST

Thursday - October 22nd from 5:00pm-6:00pm EST

The open houses will be an opportunity to learn more about the Ph.D. program and application process, hear from current students and faculty, and engage in a question and answer session.

Advanced registration is required. You can register for the event here. After you register, you will receive a link to the virtual event.

Please contact Dr. Charles Scherbaum (Charles.Scherbaum@baruch.cuny.edu) with any questions on the registration or event.
