A Newsletter Published by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs

GREETINGS from all of us in Student Affairs to new and returning GC students. As we commence this academic year together, I want to assure you that The Graduate Center faculty, staff and administration have been planning all summer implementing a thoughtfully crafted plan to provide programs, resources, and services and are eager to engage with you in your studies, teaching and research. Incoming students should make sure to check out our online orientation page at New Student Orientation 2021 \(cuny.edu\).

Along with planning for a new academic year, we are welcoming new leadership and saying thank you to a devoted steward of The Graduate Center. Dr. Julia Wrigley has been an invaluable member of The City University of New York academic community since 1991. With the fall semester, she will be ending her appointment as Interim Provost and Senior Vice President of The Graduate Center.

In earlier administrative roles, from 2014 to 2015, she served as CUNY's interim executive vice chancellor and university provost. Prior to that, she served as associate university provost, and from 2005 to 2008, she was the acting associate provost and dean for academic affairs at The Graduate Center. We are so grateful to her for her service, especially during the pandemic, and are happy that she will remain a professor in the sociology and urban education programs at the GC.

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Steve Everett as Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Everett has three decades of academic leadership at public and private research universities, including Emory University, the University of Illinois at Chicago, and Adelphi University. Throughout his career, Dr. Everett has focused on forging collaborations within and across institutions, inclusive student success, and fostering innovation.

Dr. Everett most recently served as provost, executive vice president, and professor of music at Adelphi University. In that role, he oversaw all academic and student services for the university, which has eight schools, four campus locations, and 7,300 students.

With appreciation to the continuing students who have engaged effectively in the effort to foster an informed, safe community, as part of our initiatives to address Title IX education, prevention, reporting, and support services for students, The Graduate Center and other CUNY campuses require new students and student leaders to participate in a new online training called Sexual and Interpersonal Violence Prevention and Response Course ("SPARC"). Students will be receiving information on how to enroll via their Graduate Center email. The Graduate Center and all of CUNY take very seriously issues of sexual harassment and sexual violence. More information and important Graduate Center contacts can be found at <https://www.gc.cuny.edu/TitleIX>.

If you need to register to vote—or if you wish to sign up as an organ donor, even if you are not registering to vote or changing your address for voter registration purposes—a voter registration link and forms are provided by our office each semester. At <http://www2.cuny.edu/register-to-vote/> you can obtain forms and assistance on voter registration as well as citizenship information. Voter registration information and application forms are also available at the website for the State Board of Elections of the State of New York at <http://www.elections.ny.gov/>. Note as well that in connection with the provision of student disability services by the Student Affairs office, we are, under the National Voter Registration Act, an agency-based voter registration site where voter registration application forms and information are available and where students will be offered the opportunity to register to vote. If you would like information, voter registration application forms (which we can mail in for you), or voter registration assistance of any kind, please e-mail our office at studentaffairs@gc.cuny.edu.

Please make sure to review current CUNY policies regarding building access and vaccinations #VaxUpCUNY – The City University of New York. As we navigate this uncertain time, we stand committed to providing safe access to all students, faculty and staff. Please do not hesitate to bring to Student Affairs any questions, concerns, or feedback in general. We can be reached at studentaffairs@gc.cuny.edu and are committed to addressing the needs of our community and building upon the resilience and innovation that have emerged during these unusual times.

You can obtain quick research help any time of day or night through Ask a Librarian. Graduate Center Librarians are only a click away: we can assist with search strategies and keywords, citations, Zotero, and so much more!

The chat feature is live and available 24 hours/7 days a week, with after-hours staffing by an international consortium of qualified librarians. We review all questions closely, so bring your research queries - from the most complex to the simplest - and we'll be happy to help out. <https://library.gc.cuny.edu/ask-a-librarian/>

Request a One-on-One Consultation

For more in-depth help, set up a research consultation. Using this form, simply provide information about your project and when you're available to meet. We'll follow up quickly and the more context about your research we have to start with, the better we are able to assist. Take a look to find your subject liaison, here.

Research Guides

We've prepared 81 helpful research guides on a wide variety of topics. Each discipline/subject area has a guide that includes suggestions on which databases are best for your field, how to find articles/scholarship, and other tips. We recommend taking a look at: Grants & Funding, Beyond Wikipedia: Background & Reference Sources, and Citation Managers & Style Guides, which could be useful for everyone.

Dissertations and Theses Year-in-Review, 2020-21

Each year, as we celebrate our GC graduates, the library's Dissertation Office produces a round-up of dissertations, theses, and capstone projects to highlight the incredible work being done by our students. In a Spring 2021 semester marked by the continued impact of COVID-19, our intellectual work at The Graduate Center has carried on—students defended their dissertations over Skype and Zoom, and were cleared to deposit their work with the library.

The Writing Center

In order to create and communicate academic knowledge, scholars in every discipline must cultivate advanced skills and habits not only with respect to their research, but also with respect to their writing. The Writing Center assists current and past graduate students in the cultivation of these writerly skills and habits through individual consultations, workshops, and other programming. As one of the few writing centers in the country that specifically serves the needs of graduate students, we also make it our mission to ask and answer the question of what services a graduate writing center could and should offer. Students can connect with the Writing Center in several ways: email us at WritingCenter@gc.cuny.edu; follow us on Twitter @WritingCenterGC; or access our calendar of events and use the many resources on our website. We look forward to helping you achieve your writing goals!

Petrie Emergency Grants

The Carroll and Milton Petrie Student Emergency Grant Fund, made possible by generous support from the Petrie Foundation, provides quick-response grants typically up to $2,000 to Graduate Center students who are facing current short-term financial emergencies. With the fund, The Graduate Center seeks to assist students to complete their education, rather than take a leave of absence or withdraw from school. Some examples of these emergencies include overdue utilities bills, rent in arrears at risk for eviction, housing assistance for homelessness, medical and dental bills for uninsured non-elective procedures, destruction of living quarters, due to fire or other natural disaster, theft of computer or other essential belongings, assistance in paying for basic necessities due to recent financial difficulty, emergency child care for legal dependents, and travel home for illness or death in the immediate family.

Matriculated students in good standing, who are experiencing a current and unforeseen financial emergency, are eligible to apply for emergency fund assistance once per year. The application form can be found at <https://www.gc.cuny.edu/Prospective-Current-Students/Current-Students/Fellowships-and-Financial-Aid/Student-Emergency-Grant-Fund>.

Doctoral Student Parental Accommodation Policies

In recognition of the challenges of balancing the demands of doctoral study and parenting a new child, The Graduate Center's Doctoral Student Parental Accommodation are intended to further The Graduate Center's commitment to supporting programs and services to help graduate students to meet their family care obligations while they pursue their academic goals. For specific policy information and the procedures for requesting parental accommodations, refer to The Graduate Center's Student Handbook section “Doctoral Student Parental Accommodation Policy” online at <http://www.gc.cuny.edu/News/GC-News/Detail?id=25206>

Pregnancy Non-Discrimination Policy

The Graduate School and University Center does not discriminate against any student on the basis of pregnancy or related conditions. Absences due to medical conditions relating to pregnancy will be excused for as long as deemed medically necessary by a student's doctor and students will be given the opportunity to make up missed work. Students needing assistance can seek accommodations from accessibility services within the Student Affairs office or from Vice President for Student Affairs Matthew G. Schoengood. (Contact information for both resources: erivera@gc.cuny.edu)

The Ombuds Office

The Ombuds Office is always here for you! It offers a safe and neutral place for students, along with other members of the GC community, to voice concerns, evaluate situations, organize their thoughts, and explore options for handling problems that arise - all in strict confidence. The ombuds officer can gather information, serve as a “shuttle diplomat,” or mediate, as well as provide referrals to relevant authorities. The office has been established outside the existing administrative and academic structures and is completely independent. The most important job of the ombuds officer is to listen. Concerns that people bring to this office include feelings of stress, disagreements about grades, problems with tuition charges, interpersonal conflicts, professional misconduct, academic dishonesty, safety concerns, ethics and whistle-blowing, and intellectual property issues. Students should feel free to visit this office. Contact Dr. Martin Gitterman Ombuds Officer, ombuds@gc.cuny.edu, <http://web.gc.cuny.edu/ombuds/>

Services for Students With Disabilities

The provision of student disability services is a function of the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (the Student Affairs Office). The 504 / ADA Compliance Coordinator for persons with disabilities the Vice President for Student Affairs.

The mission of Student Affairs disability services is to provide and support equal access to all programs, services, and activities of the Graduate Center and the University for Graduate Center students with disabilities. Non-discriminatory, or equal, access for students with disabilities is achieved through a process of accommodation. It is the policy of the Graduate Center and CUNY to provide auxiliary aids and services and to make appropriate academic accommodations needed by students with disabilities.

A disability is any physical or mental impairment—visible or invisible, permanent or temporary—that substantially limits one or more major life activities. A person is considered to be a person with a disability if the individual has the disability, has a record of the disability, or is regarded as having the disability.

It is the student's responsibility to initiate services and self-disclose. To do so (with confidentiality), contact the manager of SDS by phone (212-817-7400) or email (disabilityservices@gc.cuny.edu) to schedule a meeting by phone, Zoom, or in-person, when safe. Students are encouraged to contact SDS to discuss present and future needs to facilitate effective planning. Discussions and information regarding a student's disability will be kept confidential unless a student requests otherwise.

Student Disability Services works closely with faculty and the academic program offices to arrange for accommodated exam administration and other types of academic modifications.

Documentation appropriate to the requested accommodations must be provided to the SDS manager; it is kept on file and not shared with any faculty or program unless necessary and agreed to by the student. This documentation must come from a qualified professional and provide information on diagnosis/specific disability conditions, functional limitations in the higher education setting, and recommended accommodations. The purpose of this documentation is to enable us to determine, together with the student seeking accommodations, the most appropriate accommodations for the student.

Assistive Technology aids and services are coordinated by Student Affairs in collaboration with the GC's Information Technology services as well as with CUNY's Assistive Technology Services office. The Graduate Center provides readers/library assistants, real-time captioning, sign-language interpreters, notetakers, scribes, assistive technology, and other auxiliary aids and services as needed. A few examples of possible academic accommodations are extended or divided time for taking an examination, as might be required for a student who has a learning disability or for whom physical stamina is reduced; use of a computer or other auxiliary aid during an examination; adjustments in course load when appropriate; and recording of classes.

Adaptive equipment and computer software are available at the Graduate Center. Computer users have access to screen-character enlargement, text-to-speech, and optical-character-recognition scan-and-read software, a closed-circuit television and voice recognition software. Some software is also available for home use by students registered with our office.

Resources For Combating Sexual Harassment/ Sexual Assault (Title IX)

Sexual harassment of students, which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of gender discrimination prohibited by Title IX. The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights defines sexual harassment as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, as well as acts of sexual violence. Harassing conduct creates a "hostile environment" when sufficiently severe or pervasive to limit a student's ability to participate in educational activities.

If you believe you are being subjected to sexual harassment, domestic violence, sexual or dating violence, or stalking, call public safety or 911. You may also contact one of The Graduate Center officials listed below so they can investigate the allegation and take prompt and effective steps to end the harassment or violence:

- Interim Vice President of Institutional Equity and Human Resources/
Chief Diversity Officer/Title IX Coordinator: Pinar Ozgu, pozgu@gc.cuny.edu

The Teaching & Learning Center

The Graduate Center's Teaching Center (GCTL) supports Graduate Center students who are beginning and evolving as college teachers, and develops programming that asserts and explores the centrality of pedagogy to the modern university. TLC staff provide individual consultations and workshops for students on course and assignment design, syllabus construction, classroom management, the role of technology in the classroom, assessment, preparing for the job market, and the scholarship of teaching and learning. The TLC also partners with sister units on special projects at The Graduate Center and across CUNY. Members of the GC community can stay abreast of the TLC's activities by joining its group on the CUNY Academic Commons, located at <https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/groups/teaching-and-learning-center/>. # The Office of International Students

The Office of International Students (OIS) assists international students at The Graduate Center with maintaining legal status in the United States, applying for benefits of status, and providing support with adjustment to the U.S., New York City, and a new academic system.

SEVIS (the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System) is the official record of an international student's immigration status activities. For an international student to maintain valid F-1 or J-1 Immigration Status in the United States, the student's SEVIS record must be kept up-to-date and in active status.

SEVIS Reporting Requirements: The principal items that international students in F-1 or J-1 Status must report to the Office of International Students are:

1. Change of US Address and of Legal Name (as it appears in the student's Passport) must be reported to the Office of International Students within 10 days of the change. The "SEVIS Data Sheet" should be used to report the change. The form is available on our website, under the current students section. You may complete the form and submit it to the Office of International Students at the Graduate Center via email or in person.

2. Applications for Extension of F-1 or J-1 Status must be submitted to the Office of International Students no later than 30 days before the completion date on Form I-20 or DS-2019. Students should consult the Office of International Students 1 to 2 months in advance. The extension of program application form is available on our website, under the current students section.

3. Applications for a new I-20 or DS-2019 form for a Change of Major or Change of Degree Level between Master's and Ph.D. must be submitted to the Office of International Students before a student begins the new program. Students must receive the new I-20 or DS-2019 form before they may begin classes in the new program.

4. On-Campus Employment Authorization for J-1 students. J-1 students must apply for on-campus employment authorization before beginning any job on any CUNY campus. The employment authorization is for one specific on-campus job and is valid for one year. The On-Campus Employment Request form for J-1 students is available on our website, under the current students section.

5. Applications for Off-Campus (non-CUNY) Employment must be submitted to the Office of International Students and approved in SEVIS before a student begins any job off-campus, paid or unpaid. Students must receive employment authorization before they may begin working for any paid or unpaid positions. Information about Curricular Practical Training (F-1 students) and Academic Training (J-1 students) is available on our website, under the current students section.

6. Applications for post-completion Optional Practical Training (OPT in F-1 Status) or Academic Training (AT in J-1 Status) must be made before a student deposits the thesis or dissertation. Students must contact an International Student Counselor at the beginning of the semester in which they plan to defend and deposit their Dissertation or Thesis. Information regarding OPT and Academic Training is available on our website.

7. Transfer of SEVIS Record to another school must be processed in SEVIS before a student leaves the Graduate Center and before departing the United States, if applicable.

Maintaining Valid Immigration Status

1. Confirm that all immigration documentation are up-to-date.

2. Make copies of Passport, Visa, I-94, and I-20 or DS-2019 forms for your own records to protect in case of loss. Keep all of your I-20 or DS-2019 forms for your records.

3. Maintain Full-Time Registration at the Graduate Center each semester. Apply for a reduced course load authorization, if eligible, for any semester you plan to enroll less than full-time. Students must receive the reduced course load authorization before enrolling less than full-time.

4. Obtain employment authorization for any Off-Campus Employment (non-CUNY) before beginning any employment (paid or unpaid).

5. J-1 Students Only: Obtain on-campus employment authorization for any On-Campus Employment (CUNY) before beginning the employment.

6. J-1 Students Only: Maintain health insurance coverage that meets the minimum health insurance coverage requirements per the J-1 regulations. J-1 students must submit a J-1 Health Insurance Verification form to the Office of International Students. Information regarding the coverage requirements are available on our website.

7. Four months before a student plans to graduate, the student should contact an International Student Counselor so that we may discuss post-graduation plans and review immigration status options.

8. File yearly U.S. tax return reports. The Office of International Students provides information and holds workshops to assist Non-Resident Alien Tax Status students in February and March, following the end of the tax-calendar year. We will announce these over our INTSTU-L Email List, on our Facebook page, and on our Twitter account.

9. Contact the Office of International Students before beginning a change of Status to any other US immigration status (e.g., H-1B, Permanent Residency, etc.).

Traveling Outside the United States

1. Before travel outside the US, students must always check with our Office to verify that their passport, visa, and I-20 or DS-2019 will allow them to reenter. We will advise you of the travel and reentry regulations and update your documents, if necessary, before you depart the US.

2. After reentering the US, a student must bring to our office or submit via email at intstu@gc.cuny.edu the following documents: Passport, I-94 Admission Record, and I-20 or DS-2019 Form.

Validating E-mail Address

Students should report their current/active e-mail address to the Office of International Students. The Office of International Students must enter your valid email address in your SEVIS record. The Office of International Students uses email as the principal means of informing international students of important immigration status requirements and policy changes. Please inform us of any change in email address by completing the "SEVIS Data Sheet" available on our website.

Office Visits

A student must bring all original immigration status documents whenever they comes to our office. We need to verify that there have been no additions or changes since a previous visit or after a reentry to the United States from travel. You may contact the Office of International Students at (212) 817-7490 or by email at intstu@gc.cuny.edu.
