Spring 2020

GREETINGS from all of us in Student Affairs and Student Services.

We are pleased to welcome Dr. David Hershinow to The Graduate Center as the inaugural director of the new Writing Center, which provides personal writing consultations, workshops, and peer writing groups to students.

Dr. Hershinow previously directed the Johns Hopkins Writing Center and was a faculty member of the Princeton Writing Program, and recently served as a visiting assistant professor of English at CUNY's Baruch College

Last semester we launched a series of student activities including a movie screening, bingo night and cookiefest. Look for postings about upcoming spring events!

A reminder for all academically-related international travel, students must follow the CUNY International Travel Guidelines, in particular, the section on mandatory procedures for "CUNY-affiliated Independent Academic Travel." Such travel includes any self-guided international travel by a student for the purpose of research, internship activities or attending or presenting research at conferences related to academic work at CUNY. Students are required to purchase international travel insurance whether or not they are being funded for such travel. The three required forms must be submitted to the Office of Student Affairs at least two weeks prior to their departure. The insurance must include evacuation for both medical and security/safety situations. Submission of these forms after their return is not acceptable.

Details, forms, and the link to purchase travel insurance at the reduced CUNY rate can be found at the following site:

<http://www.gc.cuny.edu/Prospective-Current-Students/Current-Students/International-Travel-Requirements-for-Current-Students>.

As with the start of any new semester, please take a moment to make sure that your NYSHIP status is up-to-date if you are enrolled in this employee benefit: Is there any change to your job title or the campus from which you will be paid? If so, you need to submit a transfer form. Are you an adjunct at a community college? If so, you must contact Student Affairs and your community college so that your payroll can be transferred to the Graduate Center. This must be done each semester. Are you still a student but not in an eligible job title? Or have you graduated, taken a leave of absence, or withdrawn from your program (even if you are still adjuncting)? If so, you are no longer eligible to remain in NYSHIP and must complete a termination form, even if you are an adjunct this semester. If your NYSHIP is terminating, you will be offered continuation of coverage via COBRA by New York State Civil Service. Finally, always remember that if you have changed your residence address, you must notify us directly via the change of address form. All forms can be found at <http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/hr/benefits/doctoral-students/> Please send completed forms and questions to: healthinsuranceinfo@gc.cuny.edu.

A reminder as part of our ongoing effort to foster an informed, safe community: If you were an entering student for the fall semester or a new student this semester, please take the important mandatory step of logging on for your SPARC Plus Online Training on preventing addressing sexual misconduct and which will support you and your fellow-students in your student life and in your role teaching undergraduate students at CUNY. Please see the link in your CUNYfirst account under the "To Do" list.

Student government elections for the DSC (Doctoral and Graduate Students' Council) begin with the nominations process during the spring. Consider taking advantage of the participatory and professional development opportunities that the DSC and other governance roles offer. At a less local level, I remind you that if you need to register to vote—or if you wish to sign up as an organ donor, even if you are not registering to vote or changing your address for voter registration purposes—your program disseminates a voter registration link and forms provided by our office each semester. The City University of New York makes voter registration forms through your CUNYfirst account. It's a personalized form that you can mail in yourself. You don't even need a stamp. You may also obtain forms and assistance in the Student Affairs. Note as well that in connection with the provision of student disability services by the Student Affairs office, we are, under the National Voter Registration Act, an agency-based voter registration site where voter registration application forms and information are available and where students will be offered the opportunity to register to vote. If you would like information, voter registration application forms (which we can mail in for you), or voter registration assistance of any kind, please call Student Affairs at 212-817-7400 or e-mail our office at studentaffairs@gc.cuny.edu.

Finally, take time to at least skim through the GC Student Handbook, which this Newsletter generally supplements with updates and highlights. You will find the Handbook online as a pdf at http://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Publications/Student_Handbook_web.pdf?ext=.pdf. Please don't hesitate to bring to Student Affairs any questions, concerns, or feedback in general. We are in Room 7301 and can be reached at 212-817-7400 and studentaffairs@gc.cuny.edu.

Happy new semester, and stay connected!

–Matthew G. Schoengood, V.P. for Student Affairs

New York State of Health

New York State of Health, the Official Health Plan Marketplace, is a way for people to shop for, compare, and enroll in health coverage. It is also the only place to get financial assistance provided by the federal government to lower the cost of your health coverage. If you live in New York, the New York Health Benefit Exchange is the Health Insurance Marketplace to serve you. Use the New York Health Benefit Exchange website to apply for coverage, compare plans, and enroll. You can quickly compare health plan options and apply for assistance that could lower the cost of health coverage. Individuals and families may also qualify for free or low-cost coverage from Medicaid or Child Health Plus through the Marketplace. Anyone who needs health coverage can apply.

The current open enrollment ends on January 31st, 2020.

If you have a qualifying event, however, you may be eligible to enroll after the deadline. To view health insurance options available on the Exchange, visit the NY State of Health Official Health Plan Marketplace website or call 1-855-355-5777. Students may qualify for the Essential Plan available through the Official Health Plan Marketplace website (above). It costs much less than other health plans and it offers the same essential benefits. It is available to lower-income residents who don't qualify for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and there is no enrollment period. If you qualify, coverage could be as little as $20 a month.

The Wellness Center

Student Health Services (SHS) provides health and wellness information and education including presentations, workshops, health screening events, and individualized health education consultations. There is also a yearly comprehensive Wellness Festival, which is scheduled during the Spring semester.

Students may schedule a health education consultation with our Nurse Practitioner to ask about personal wellness concerns and discuss general health topics such as: diet and nutrition; sexual health (including STIs, breast and testicular self-exam, family planning); smoking cessation, substance abuse; sports and occupational injury prevention; self-care management; medication questions; referral information for health maintenance and health problems.

Note: This service is for health information and education only. If you are seeking clinical care, please seek an outside provider.

Office of Career Planning and Professional Development

The Office of Career Planning and Professional Development supports the Graduate Center's students in achieving their career goals. The office offers individual career counseling to students, including advice on CV's, resumes, and other job search materials, assistance with preparing for interviews, and discussions of career planning strategies. We work with students on both nonacademic and academic job searches. We also offer peer-to-peer writing consultations; students can meet individually with our graduate writing consultants to review written materials such as seminar papers and discuss writing-related issues. All conversations with office staff are confidential. Students can connect with the office in several ways: email us at CareerPlan@gc.cuny.edu; follow us on Twitter @CareerPlanGC; or access our calendar of events and use the many resources on our website. Our office is located in suite 3300.08 of the Graduate Center and we can be reached at 212-817-7425. We look forward to helping you attain your professional goals!

The Writing Center

In order to create and communicate academic knowledge, scholars in every discipline must cultivate advanced skills and habits not only with respect to their research, but also with respect to their writing. The Writing Center assists current and past graduate students in the cultivation of these writerly skills and habits through individual consultations, workshops, and other programming. As one of the few writing centers in the country that specifically serves the needs of graduate students, we also make it our mission to ask and answer the question of what services a graduate writing center could and should offer. Students can connect with the Writing Center in several ways: email us at WritingCenter@gc.cuny.edu; follow us on Twitter @WritingCenterGC; or access our calendar of events and use the many resources on our website. Our office is located in suite 3300.10 of the Graduate Center and we can be reached at 212-817-7425. We look forward to helping you achieve your writing goals!

Teaching and Learning Center

The GC's Teaching and Learning Center (TLC) supports Graduate Center students who are starting or evolving as college teachers, and develops programming that asserts and explores the centrality of pedagogy to the modern university. The TLC provides individual consultations and workshops for students on course and assignment design, syllabus construction, classroom management, the role of technology in the classroom, assessment, preparing for the job market, and the scholarship of teaching and learning. The TLC also works with partner offices and programs at the Graduate Center, including the Provost's Office, the GC Digital Initiatives, the Futures Initiative, the Office of Career Planning and Professional Development, the Interactive Technology and Pedagogy Certificate Program, and the Center for Media and Learning on projects that identify, explore, and support emerging modes of pedagogy across CUNY's classrooms. For more on the TLC, including a schedule of workshops and staff office hours, visit the website. Rooms: 3300.21. Telephone: 212-817-7273. Email: tlc@gc.cuny.edu. Director: Dr. Luke Waltzer.

Updates from the Graduate Center Library

Exploring "Open": At the GC, you hear a lot about openness in scholarship and teaching. Do you know what all the different "open" terms mean? Did you know we supply fellowships to Doctoral students teaching as adjuncts throughout CUNY? Learn more about open educational resources, open pedagogy, and open access here.

When Is a "Journal" Not Really a Journal? Have you heard about "predatory" journals, also known as fake journals, sham journals, scam journals, and pseudo-journals? Are you wondering what their tactics are and how to avoid them? Find out here.

Library Exhibit: Queer Studies at CUNY: On display in the library is the exhibit "Thousands of Ghostly Sheaves: A History of Queer Studies at CUNY." Materials were drawn from the archives of the Center for LGBTQ Studies (CLAGS), the first academic LGBTQ research center in the United States. Founded in 1991, CLAGS was integral to the growth and direction of Queer Studies as a field of scholarly inquiry, and it continues to serve as a dynamic network for emerging queer scholarship. Learn more at here, and stop by the library to see the exhibit, up for the entire Spring 2020 semester.

MaRLI and Research outside the GC Library: If your research warrants access to Columbia or New York University (NYU) libraries, NYPL has changed access parameters to this program. Learn about updates to qualifying for MaRLI access here.

Chat with a Librarian: You can chat with a librarian any time of day or night by clicking “Ask a Librarian” on the library website. This 24/7 availability is not fueled by endless cups of coffee but rather through an international library consortium in which librarians from other academic institutions assist with questions from GC researchers (and vice versa). So, no matter when you do your research, there’s a qualified academic librarian ready to help!

Suggest a Book! Is there a book that you borrow repeatedly from other libraries and wish that we had here? Is there something that you can’t believe isn’t already held at CUNY? A title that’s about to be released that should be on our radar? Use our new book purchase request form.

The Ombuds Office

The Ombuds Office is here for you

The Ombuds Office offers a safe and neutral place for students, along with other members of the GC community, to voice concerns, evaluate situations, organize their thoughts, and explore options for handling problems that arise—all in strictest confidence. Options can range from informally talking about concerns to requesting a formal grievance. The Ombuds Officer can gather information, serve as a “shuttle diplomat,” or mediate, as well as provide referrals to relevant authorities. The office has been established outside the existing administrative and academic structures and is completely independent. The most important job of the Ombuds Officer is to LISTEN. Concerns that people bring to this office include feelings of stress, disagreements about grades, problems with tuition charges, interpersonal conflicts, professional misconduct, academic dishonesty, safety concerns, ethics and whistle-blowing, and intellectual property issues. Students should feel free to visit this office. Contact Dr. Martin Gitterman Ombuds Officer, Room 8108; 212-817-7191; ombuds@gc.cuny.edu and visit the website.

Fellowships and Awards

As a general practice, students should refer to their academic program and the sites below for information on fellowships and awards.

Human Subject Research

The CUNY Human Research Protection Program (HRPP) is responsible for the protection of the rights and welfare of human subjects in research projects conducted at CUNY or by CUNY faculty, staff and students and Research Foundation (RF) CUNY staff. The program provides oversight, administrative support and educational training to ensure that CUNY research complies with federal and state regulations, University policy and the highest ethical standards. The CUNY HRPP is comprised of 3 University Integrated Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) and 22 on-site HRPP offices.

For more information about the CUNY HRPP, click here. Students conducting research under the supervision of Graduate Center faculty should also visit the GC HRPP webpage.

Disability Services for Students

The provision of student disability services is a function of the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (the Student Affairs Office). The mission of Student Affairs disability services is to provide and support equal access to all programs, services, and activities of the Graduate Center and the University for Graduate Center students with disabilities. Non-discriminatory, or equal, access for students with disabilities is achieved through a process of accommodation. It is the policy of the Graduate Center and CUNY to provide auxiliary aids and services and to make appropriate academic accommodations needed by students with disabilities.

A disability is any physical or mental impairment visible or invisible, permanent or temporary that substantially limits one or more major life activities. A person is considered to be a person with a disability if the individual has the disability, has a record of the disability, or is regarded as having the disability.

It is the student's responsibility to initiate services. To do so, contact the manager of Student Disability Services, either in person, by phone, or by email. SDS works closely with faculty and the academic program offices to arrange for accommodated exam administration and other types of academic modifications. Discussions and information regarding a student's disability will be kept confidential unless a student requests otherwise. Documentation appropriate to the requested accommodations must be provided to the Student Affairs office; it is kept on file and not shared with any faculty by Student Affairs unless necessary and agreed to by the student. This documentation must come from a qualified professional and provide information on diagnosis/specific disability conditions, functional limitations in the higher education setting, and recommended accommodations.

Assistive Technology aids and services are coordinated by Student Affairs in collaboration with the GC's Information Technology services as well as with CUNY's Assistive Technology Services office. The Graduate Center provides readers/library assistants, real-time captioning, sign-language interpreters, notetakers, scribes, assistive technology, and other auxiliary aids and services as needed. Possible academic accommodations include extended or divided time for taking an examination, use of a computer or other auxiliary aid during an examination, adjustments in course load when appropriate, and recording of classes. Adaptive equipment and computer software available at the Graduate Center include screen-character enlargement, text-to-speech, and optical-character-recognition scan-and-read software, a closed-circuit television, and voice recognition software.

The Graduate Center website, and the Graduate Center Student Handbook, provide further details regarding the accommodation process, documentation requirements, and available resources.

The 504 / ADA Compliance Coordinator for persons with disabilities is the Vice President for Student Affairs, Room 7301; Telephone: 1-212-817-7400. For more information (with confidentiality) and to request accommodations, contact the Manager of Student Disability Services, Director of Student Affairs, or the Vice President for Student Affairs (1-212-817-7400 or disabilityservice@gc.cuny.edu) and consult the Website or Student Handbook (links above).

Office of International Students

The Office of International Students (OIS) assists international students at The Graduate Center with maintaining legal status in the United States, applying for benefits of status, and providing support with adjustment to the U.S., New York City, and a new academic system.

SEVIS (the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System) is the official record of an international student's immigration status activities. For an international student to maintain valid F-1 or J-1 Immigration Status in the United States, the student's SEVIS record must be kept up-to-date and in active status.

SEVIS Reporting Requirements: The principal items that international students in F-1 or J-1 Status must report to the Office of International Students are:

1. Change of US Address and of Legal Name (as it appears in the student's Passport) must be reported to the Office of International Students within 10 days of the change. The "SEVIS Data Sheet" should be used to report the change. The form is available on our website, under the current students section. You may complete the form and submit it to the Office of International Students at the Graduate Center via email or in person.

2. Applications for Extension of F-1 or J-1 Status must be submitted to the Office of International Students no later than 30 days before the completion date on Form I-20 or DS-2019. Students should consult the Office of International Students 1 to 2 months in advance. The extension of program application form is available on our website, under the current students section.

3. Applications for a new I-20 or DS-2019 form for a Change of Major or Change of Degree Level between Master's and Ph.D. must be submitted to the Office of International Students before a student begins the new program. Students must receive the new I-20 or DS-2019 form before they may begin classes in the new program.

4. On-Campus Employment Authorization for J-1 students. J-1 students must apply for on-campus employment authorization before beginning any job on any CUNY campus. The employment authorization is for one specific on-campus job and is valid for one year. The On-Campus Employment Request form for J-1 students is available on our website, under the current students section.

5. Applications for Off-Campus (non-CUNY) Employment must be submitted to the Office of International Students and approved in SEVIS before a student begins any job off-campus, paid or unpaid. Students must receive employment authorization before they may begin working for any paid or unpaid positions. Information about Curricular Practical Training (F-1 students) and Academic Training (J-1 students) is available on our website, under the current students section.

6. Applications for post-completion Optional Practical Training (OPT in F-1 Status) or Academic Training (AT in J-1 Status) must be made before a student deposits the thesis or dissertation. Students must contact an International Student Counselor at the beginning of the semester in which they plan to defend and deposit their Dissertation or Thesis. Information regarding OPT and Academic Training is available on our website.

7. Transfer of SEVIS Record to another school must be processed in SEVIS before a student leaves the Graduate Center and before departing the United States, if applicable.

Maintaining Valid Immigration Status

1. Confirm that all immigration documentation are up-to-date.
2. Make copies of Passport, Visa, I-94, and I-20 or DS-2019 forms for your own records to protect in case of loss. Keep all of your I-20 or DS-2019 forms for your records.
3. Maintain Full-Time Registration at the Graduate Center each semester. Apply for a reduced course load authorization, if eligible, for any semester you plan to enroll less than full-time. Students must receive the reduced course load authorization before enrolling less than full-time.
4. Obtain employment authorization for any Off-Campus Employment (non-CUNY) before beginning any employment (paid or unpaid).
5. J-1 Students Only: Obtain on-campus employment authorization for any On-Campus Employment (CUNY) before beginning the employment.
6. J-1 Students Only: Maintain health insurance coverage that meets the minimum health insurance coverage requirements per the J-1 regulations. J-1 students must submit a J-1 Health Insurance Verification form to the Office of International Students. Information regarding the coverage requirements are available on our website.
7. Four months before a student plans to graduate, the student should contact an International Student Counselor so that we may discuss post-graduation plans and review immigration status options.
8. File yearly U.S. tax return reports. The Office of International Students provides information and holds workshops to assist Non-Resident Alien Tax Status students in February and March, following the end of the tax-calendar year. We will announce these over our INTSTU-L Email List, on our Facebook page, and on our Twitter account.
9. Contact the Office of International Students before beginning a change of Status to any other US immigration status (e.g., H-1B, Permanent Residency, etc.).

Traveling Outside the United States

1. Before travel outside the US, students must always check with our Office to verify that their passport, visa, and I-20 or DS-2019 will allow them to reenter. We will advise you of the travel and reentry regulations and update your documents, if necessary, before you depart the US.

2. After reentering the US, a student must bring to our office or submit via email at intstu@gc.cuny.edu the following documents: Passport, I-94 Admission Record, and I-20 or DS-2019 Form.

Validating E-mail Address

Students should report their current/active e-mail address to the Office of International Students. The Office of International Students must enter your valid email address in your SEVIS record. The Office of International Students uses email as the principal means of informing international students of important immigration status requirements and policy changes. Please inform us of any change in email address by completing the "SEVIS Data Sheet" available on our website.

Office Visits

A student must bring all original immigration status documents whenever he or she comes to our office. We need to verify that there have been no additions or changes since a previous visit or after a reentry to the United States from travel. You may contact the Office of International Students at (212) 817-7490 or by email at intstu@gc.cuny.edu.

The Child Development and Learning Center

The GC Child Development and Learning Center provides an excellent educational program for preschool children. Licensed to serve 27 children ages 2 through 5, it offers on-site affordable childcare to children of GC faculty, staff, and students. To learn more about the program or placing your child on the center's waiting list, please contact (212- 817-7032, cdlc@gc.cuny.edu).

Important CUNY Policies

RESOURCES FOR COMBATING SEXUAL HARASSMENT/SEXUAL ASSAULT (TITLE IX)

Sexual harassment of students, which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of gender discrimination prohibited by Title IX. The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights defines sexual harassment as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, as well as acts of sexual violence. Harassing conduct creates a “hostile environment” when sufficiently severe or pervasive to limit a student’s ability to participate in educational activities. If you believe you are being subjected to sexual harassment, domestic violence, sexual or dating violence, or stalking, call public safety or 911. You may also contact one of The Graduate Center officials listed below so they can investigate the allegation and take prompt and effective steps to end the harassment or violence:

- Interim Vice President of Institutional Equity and Human Resources/ Chief Diversity Officer/Title IX Coordinator: Pinar Ozgu, Room 8204.03, 212-817-7101, pozgu@gc.cuny.edu
- Chief Student Affairs Officer/ Vice President of Student Affairs: Matthew G. Schoengood, Room 7301, 212-817-7400, mschoengood@gc.cuny.edu
- Director of Public Safety: John Flaherty, Room 9117, 212-817-7761, jflaherty@gc.cuny.edu
- Executive Director of Human Resources: David Boxill, Room 8403, 212-817-7700, dboxill@gc.cuny.edu

THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK POLICY ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

The City University of New York (“University” or “CUNY”), located in a historically diverse municipality, is committed to a policy of equal employment and equal access in its educational programs and activities. Doctoral Student Parental Accommodation Policies

In recognition of the challenges of balancing the demands of doctoral study and parenting a new child, the Graduate Center's Doctoral Student Parental Accommodation Policies are intended to further the Graduate Center's commitment to supporting programs and services to help graduate students to meet their family care obligations while they pursue their academic goals. For specific policy information and the procedures for requesting parental accommodations, refer to the Graduate Center's Student Handbook (pp. 91-98).

Pregnancy Non-Discrimination Policy

The Graduate School and University Center does not discriminate against any student on the basis of pregnancy or related conditions. Absences due to medical conditions relating to pregnancy will be excused for as long as deemed medically necessary by a student's doctor and students will be given the opportunity to make up missed work. Students needing assistance can seek accommodations from accessibility services within the Student Affairs office from Vice President for Student Affairs Matthew G. Schoengood. (Room 7301; 212- 817-7400; StudentAffairs@gc.cuny.edu) or from Title IX Coordinator/Compliance & Diversity Officer Edith Rivera (Room 7301; 212-817-7410; ComplianceDiversity@gc.cuny.edu).
